

William Seager studied with Ronnie for his PhD at the University of Toronto in the late 1970s and have many fond (maybe some not so fond) memories of discussions with him as his dissertation chapters slowly appeared and evolved. Since then, he has taught at U of T for the last 40 years or so, mostly working in the philosophy of mind and especially consciousness studies, publishing many articles and a few books, including Metaphysics of Consciousness (1991), Natural Fabrications (2012), Theories of Consciousness (2016) and The Routledge Handbook of Panpsychism (2020, ed.).
